TITLE 13

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Chapter 13.01 Regulation of Fireworks

13.01.01 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to insure the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of the Port Gamble S'Klallam Reservation by providing for the safe and orderly use of fireworks within the Port Gamble S'Klallam Reservation.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78. Formerly, "Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribal Fireworks Ordinance", this chapter was renumbered and slight changes in working made to facilitate codification.]

13.01.02 Definitions

Words in this chapter shall have the meaning given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates another meaning. If the meaning of a word is not clear, the Community Court shall construe the meaning of the word in harmony with the purpose of this chapter.

a) "Tribe" means the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe.

b) "Fireworks" refers to any device containing any combustible or explosive substance for the purpose of producing a visible or audible display of combustion, explosion, deflagration or detonation, but not including any firearms.

c) "Person" includes any private or government entity, corporation, partnership, organization, group, or association.

[HIST: Source Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.03 Applicable Regulations

No fireworks shall be transported, possessed, discharged, offered for sale or sold on the Port Gamble S'Klallam Indian Reservation unless they conform to the regulations regarding fireworks of the U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission found in Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 1500 and 1507, as may be amended from time to time. These regulations are incorporated by reference as tribal law and for convenience are set forth in this chapter. The provisions of this chapter shall be construed so as not to conflict with the federal regulations. In case of discrepancy between this chapter and the federal regulations, the latter shall govern.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.04 Sale of Fireworks - Exclusively Reserved to the Tribe

It shall be unlawful for any person or entity other than the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe and its authorized representatives to sell or offer for sale fireworks of any kind within the Port Gamble S'Klallam Indian Reservation.

[HIST: Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.05 Sale of Fireworks - Certificates of Authorization

All persons authorized by the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribal Council to sell fireworks for the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribal Council to sell fireworks for the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe shall have in their possession while selling fireworks a certificate of authorization. The certificate of authorization shall bear the person's name, the place at which the person is authorized to sell, the period for which the authorization is valid and shall be signed by the Tribal Chairman.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.06 Prohibited Fireworks

It shall be unlawful for any person to transport, possess, discharge, sell or offer for sale within the Port Gamble S'Klallam Reservation any of the following:

- a) Fireworks devices intended to produce audible effects (including but not limited to cherry bombs, M-80 salutes, silver salutes, and other large firecrackers, aerial bombs, and other fireworks designed to produce audible effects, and including kits and components intended to produce such fireworks) if the audible effect is produced by a charge of more than 2 grains of pyrotechnic composition; except that this provision shall not apply to fireworks devices which meet the following conditions:
 - 1) Fireworks devices distributed to farmers, ranchers, or growers through a wildlife management program administered by the United States Department of Interior or by an equivalent state or local government agency; and
 - 2) The distribution is in response to a written application describing the wildlife management problem that requires the use of the devices, is of a quantity no greater than required to control the problem described, and is where other means of control are unavailable or inadequate.
- b) Firecrackers designed to produce audible effects, if the audible effect is produced by a charge of more than 50 milligrams (.772 grains) of pyrotechnic composition (not including firecrackers included as components of a rocket), aerial bombs, and devices that may be confused with candy or other foods, such as "dragon eggs", and "cracker balls" (also known as "ball-type caps"), and including kits and components intended to produce these fireworks except devices which meet all of the conditions described in sections 13.01.06 (a) (1) and 13.01.06 (a) (2) of this chapter.

- c) All fireworks devices, other than firecrackers, including kits and components intended to produce these fireworks, not otherwise banned under this chapter that do not comply with the requirements of 16 Code of Federal Regulations Part 1507, except fireworks devices which meet all of the conditions described in sections 13.01.06 (a) (1) and 13.01.06 (a) (2) of this chapter.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.07 Prohibited Chemicals

It shall be unlawful for any person to transport, possess, discharge, sell or offer for sale within the Port Gamble S'Klallam Indian Reservation any fireworks which contain any of the following chemicals:

- a) Arsenic sulfide, arsenates, or arsenites;
- b) Boron;
- c) Chlorates, except chlorates in colored smoke mixtures in which an equal or greater amount of sodium bicarbonate is included, chlorates in caps and party poppers, and chlorates in small items (such as ground spinners) where the total powder content does not exceed 4 grams and no more than 15 percent (or 600 milligrams) of the powder is potassium chlorate, sodium chlorate or barium chlorate;
- d) Gallates or gallic acid;
- e) Magnesium, except magnesium/ aluminum alloys call magnalium are permitted;
- f) Mercury salts;
- g) Red or white phosphorus, except red phosphorus in caps and party poppers is permitted;
- h) Picrates or picric acid;
- i) Thiocynates, and

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.08 Permitted Fireworks - Requirements

It shall be unlawful for any person to transport, possess, discharge, sell or offer for sale within the Port Gamble S'Klallam Indian Reservation any fireworks which do not comply with any of the requirements set forth in section 13.01.09 through 13.01.18.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.09 Fuses

Fireworks devices that require a fuse shall:

- a) Utilize only a fuse that has been treated or coated in such manner as to reduce the possibility of side ignition. Devices such as ground spinners that require a restricted orifice for proper trust and contain less than 6 grams of pyrotechnic composition are exempted from this section.
- b) Utilize only a fuse which will burn at least 3 seconds but not more than 6 seconds before ignition of the device.
- c) Utilize only a fuse that is securely attached so that it will support either the weight of the fireworks device plus 8 ounces of dead weight or double the weight of the device, whether is less, without separation from the fireworks device.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.10 Bases

The base or bottom fireworks devices that are operated in a standing upright position shall have the minimum horizontal dimension or the diameter of the base equal to at least on-third of the height of the device, including any base or cap affixed thereto.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.11 Pyrotechnic Leakage

The pyrotechnic chamber in fireworks devices shall be sealed in a manner that prevents leakage of the pyrotechnic composition during shipping, handling, and normal operation.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.12 Burnout and Blowout

The pyrotechnic chamber in fireworks devices shall be constructed in a manner to allow functioning in a normal manner without burnout or blowout.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

13.01.13 Handles

Fireworks devices which are intended to be hand-held and are so labeled shall incorporate a handle at least 4 inches in length. Handles shall remain firmly attached during transportation, handling and full operation of the device, or shall consist of an integral section of the device at least 4 inches below the pyrotechnic chamber.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 78 A 29, passed 6/13/78.]

Cross Reference - Section 13.01.20 through 13.01.33.]

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 84 A 21, passed 8/23/84.]

Chapter 13.03 Animal Control

13.03.01 Responsibility for Animals

Any person who owns or has under his control any animal shall be responsible for:

- a) Damage to persons or property caused by the animal, including, but not limited to damage to the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe in the form of medical treatment provided to a person injured by an animal, lost wages and other costs; and
- b) Providing proper medical care, vaccinations, food, water, and reasonable supervision and care for the animal.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 04 A 033, passed 3/09/04.]

13.03.02 Definitions

As used in this code the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- a) "Animal owner" and "has under his control" means an owner of any animal, any caretaker of an animal, and includes, but is not limited to, tenants and homeowners with respect to any animal owned by any member of the household.
- b) "At large" shall mean in any public place or on private property not owned or occupied by the owner of the dog unless the permission of the owner of the property has been obtained.
- c) "Pack" of dogs shall mean three or more dogs.
- d) "Pit bull" The term "pit bull" is a generic term for a group of dogs whose ancestry can be traced to the bulldogs of the 19th century. The United Kennel Club and the American Dog Breeders Association refer to this kind of dog as the American Pit Bull Terrier, while the American Kennel Club knows it as the American Staffordshire Terrier. "Pit bull" also includes mixtures of these dogs with one another and with the Staffordshire Bull Terrier, the Bull Terrier, and the bulldog. The owner shall have the burden to prove pedigree.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 04 A 033, passed 3/09/04.]

13.03.03 Pit Bulls Banned

No person shall allow any pit bull dog to be present within the jurisdiction of the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe. A narrow exception to this rule shall be recognized for persons who own a pit bull dog on the date this code is adopted, on if the owner complies with the following requirements:

- a) The animal shall be kept at all times within a secure, fenced kennel equipped with a concrete pad sufficient to prevent escape by any means including digging; and
- b) The animal must be registered with the Tribe within thirty (30) days of the date this code is adopted. The owner must provide proof of an adequate kennel and proof that the animal is spayed or neutered, at the time of registration.

Any pit bull found not secured as required by this section is subject to seizure and disposal at the discretion of the Tribe.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 04 A 033, passed 3/09/04.]

13.03.04 Dog "Round Up" Authorized

Port Gamble S'Klallam tribal administration and the Port Gamble S'Klallam Housing Authority are authorized to periodically conduct a "round-up" of all dogs who are roaming or running at large. This authority is granted in addition to the power to have individual animals impounded under this code. Notice to the Tribal Community shall be prominently posted prior to any roundup and instructions for claiming the animals shall be prominently posted immediately after such impoundment. Animals impounded in the round-up shall be handled in the same manner as those impounded under sections 13.03.05, 13.03.06, and 13.03.07.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 04 A 033, passed 3/09/04. Resolution No. 05-A-054, passed 6/14/05 made corrections to numbering.

13.03.05 Impoundment of Dogs Allowed

Any dog found in violation of this code may be seized or impounded by any law enforcement officer of the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe Indian Tribe, or by any animal control officer of any agency whose assistance has been requested by a tribal officer, or any person employed or appointed by the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe or Port Gamble S'Klallam Housing Authority to perform this duty.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 04 A 033, passed 3/09/04. Resolution No. 05-A-054, passed 6/14/05 made corrections to numbering.

13.03.06 Notification to Owner of Impounded Dog

When an animal has been seized or impounded, the office or agency responsible shall make reasonable efforts to ascertain the identity of the owner and to notify him or her of the impoundment and of the fees for reclaiming the animal.

[HIST: Source - Resolution No. 04 A 033, passed 3/09/04. Resolution No. 05-A-054, passed 6/14/05 made corrections to numbering.

13.03.07 Length of Impoundment and Fees

All animals impounded under this code shall be held for at least the minimum duration set by the impoundment facility, unless earlier claimed by the owner and the fees required by the impoundment facility are paid, except for pit bulls which are governed under section 13.03.03. At the expiration of the holding period the animal shall be placed for adoption or humanely destroyed.
