

Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribal School Clothing Assistance

It is the Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribe’s policy to assist its children to attain academic success and support educational programs that help children become successful. The general welfare school clothing assistance program is established for the use of Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribal community children to assist in the removal of barriers to succeed in school. The Tribal Council determines in each budget cycle whether School Supply assistance funding is available.
